Andy's judgment enforcement practice involves prosecuting post-judgment writs and proceedings to recover assets. Andy has observed U.S. Marshals and Texas Sheriffs and Constables seize money and property to satisfy civil money judgments over 250 times, in over 30 different Texas Counties. Judges have also appointed Andy as Receiver to assist the Court in effectuating their judgments, including taking possession of money and property to satisfy civil money judgments.

On August 26, 2016, Andy and his Police Dog LLJA received their Certification in Currency Detection from USK9 Unlimited. Andy and K9-LLJA assist law enforcement by locating hidden cash during the enforcement of writs of execution on civil money judgments.

Andy has represented institutions and companies such as Southwestern Bell Mobile Systems, Inc., KPMG Peat Marwick, Credit Suisse First Boston Mortgage Capital, LLC, Royal Bank of Canada, and Rockstar, Inc. Andy has represented such well-known individuals as Anthony Robbins and former All-Pro Dallas Cowboy Nate Newton. Andy is frequently hired by other attorneys, as local counsel, expert witness or consulting expert engagements, or for personal representation. Andy has represented brokerages, brokers, and customers in securities related disputes. Andy has served as Lead Counsel in seven arbitrations that resulted in reasoned awards, including securities arbitration through the NASD, securities, contract and employment cases before the American Arbitration Association, and an attorney's fee dispute before JAMS. Andy has represented both Democrat and Republican political figures.

Andy handles cases in every region of Texas. Since 2015, Andy has tried a case on the merits and a temporary injunction hearing in Harris County, Texas. Through admission pro hac vice, Andy has appeared in cases in several jurisdictions outside of Texas, from coast to coast. Since 2013, Andy has represented clients in a federal court jury trial in Miami, Florida, in federal court hearings in Los Angeles, California, at evidentiary hearings in a bankruptcy case in New Mexico, and in an arbitration in Los Angeles, California.

Andy was born in Brooklyn, New York on May 7, 1965. Andy received his B.A., cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania in 1986 and his J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law in 1989. During Andy's third year of law school, he interned with the Davidson County District Attorney's Office, where he prosecuted misdemeanors and assisted in prosecution of felony cases. Andy was an associate and participating associate in the Litigation Section of the Dallas office of Fulbright & Jaworski, L.L.P. from 1989-1994.

Andy's nickname is the "Gator."

THE COURT: I mean, you've basically, put on a clinic about writs of garnishment and I appreciate that... as I've said you've put on a clinic on writ of garnishments and I respect that.

- Cause No. DF-14-14203; In re Marriage of Saud; In the District Court of Dallas County, Texas, 254th Judicial District (Ewing, J.) Reporter's Record from February 5, 2018 Hearing on Various Motions, at p. 128:

THE COURT: So we can maybe amend his [Receivership] responsibilities to collect your client's money and what's still owed...

MR. KORN: However you say to do it, we will follow.

MR. ANDERSON: Everybody will follow.

THE COURT: How about that? 'Cause, obviously, Mr. Korn knows how to collect money.

- Cause No. DC-15-01507; A&C Discount Pharmacy, LLC v. Usman A. Idodo a/k/a Usman Tony Idodo and Binta Idodo; In the 95th Judicial District Court of Dallas County, Texas (Mohlberg, J.); Reporter's Record (Vol. III) from October 9, 2017 proceedings on Motion for Contempt and Motion to Clarify, at p. 52 ([The Court]: “Mr. Korn is a very vigorous receiver. He does exemplary work as far as I'm concerned.”);

- Bexar County, Texas Commissioners Court. Proceeding, January 4, 2000. San Antonio, Texas (statement of Bexar County Commissioner Precinct One Robert Tejada):

It was a very smart move for Statewide to bring Mr. Korn in and make that presentation today. I wasn't in the room when the last presentation was made by Statewide. But if it would have been that tenor, I would have very easily and very quickly have moved to throw out all bids and re-bid the process all over again. That would present other problems, but I would be willing to put up with it...

- “Texas is one of the states with the most TV signal piracy cases...The great majority of these lawsuits are filed by The Korn Diaz Firm and its attorneys David M. Diaz and Andrew R. Korn...some of the most experienced and knowledgeable litigators in the field of TV signal piracy anywhere in the county... Overall, it must be recognized that David Diaz and Andrew Korn are very skilled attorneys in the field of TV signal piracy.”
