OCCUPATION CODE 2308-RIGHTS OF OWNER OR OPERATOR OF A STORED OR BOOTED VEHICLE

The owner or operator of a vehicle which has been removed and placed in a vehicle storage facility without the consent of the owner is entitled to a hearing on whether probable cause existed for the removal of the vehicle pursuant to Sec. 2308.452 of the Texas Occupations Code. Notice requirements: The person entitled to this hearing must deliver before the 14th day after the date the towing company or vehicle storage facility provided to the vehicle owner or operator the information necessary for the vehicle owner or operator to complete the material for the request for hearing, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. The hearing request must be submitted to the Justice of the Peace from which the motor vehicle was towed. The request must contain: (1) name, address, & telephone number of the owner or operator of the vehicle; (2) the location from which the vehicle was removed or in which the vehicle was booted; (3) the date when the vehicle was removed or booted; (4) the name, address, and telephone number of the person or law enforcement agency that authorized the removal or booting; (5) the name, address, and telephone number of the vehicle storage facility in which the vehicle was placed; (6) the name, address, and telephone number of the towing company that removed the vehicle or of the booting company that installed a boot on the vehicle; (7) a copy of any receipt or notification that the owner or operator received from the towing company, the booting company, or the vehicle storage facility; and (8) the vehicle was removed from or booted in a parking facility: (A) one or more photographs that show the location and text of any sign posted at the facility restricting parking of vehicles; or (B) a statement that no sign restricting parking was posted at the parking facility. The Court may charge a filing fee up to $20 for a hearing and may award court cost to the prevailing party, reasonable cost of the photographs to a vehicle owner or operator who is the prevailing party, and possible overcharges of towing fees. The hearing request may be filed in any Justice Court in (i) the county from which the vehicle was towed; or (ii) for booted vehicles, the county in which the parking facility is located.
